

UNMC Health Professions Opportunities Workshop:
Integration of Prevention and Population Health Across the Health Professions

Day 1

0 h 30 m	Overview of the week and course expectations
1 h	Leadership in health care
1 h 30 m	Population health and social determinants of health
1 h	Tour of medical library and session on how to use library resources at UNMC
1 h	Introduction to research teams and research projects
SUBTOTAL	5 hours

Day 2

2 h 30 m	Cultural Competency and addressing health of diverse populations
1 h 30 m	Behavioral health integration into primary care services
1 h	Emerging health issues in rural and underserved communities
1 h	Patient Centered Medical home and practice transformation models in healthcare
3 h 30 m	Structured time and faculty mentoring time on research projects
SUBTOTAL	9 hours 30 min

Day 3

3 h 30 m	Rural/Underserved community hospital/clinic visits
4 h	Structured time and faculty mentoring time on research projects
2 h	Group reflections and discussions about community visits
SUBTOTAL	9 hours 30 min

Day 4

1 h	Introduction to interprofessional practice and collaborative team concepts in healthcare
3 h	Interprofessional clinical simulation scenarios and problem solving
1 h	Panel of rural health professionals – advice and mentorship
5 h	Structured time and librarian consultation time on research projects
SUBTOTAL	10 hours

Day 5

4 h	Students present projects to a panel of 5 UNMC faculty
1 h	Group and faculty discussion of core healthcare topics
SUBTOTAL	5 hours

After Workshop Requirements

6 h	Final paper
SUBTOTAL	6 hours

GRAND TOTAL: 45 hours